FINDING

There being a finding/verdict of GUILTY, defendant has been convicted as charged of the offense(s) of:

First Superseding Indictment: Wire Fraud, Aiding and Abetting in violation of 18 U.S.C. §§1343, 2(a).

JUDGMENT AND PROB/
COMM ORDER

The Court asked whether there was any reason why judgment should not be pronounced. Because no sufficient cause to the contrary was shown, or appeared to the Court, the Court adjudged the defendant guilty as charged and convicted and ordered that: Pursuant to the Sentencing Reform Act of 1984, it is the judgment of the Court that the defendant is hereby committed to the custody of the Bureau of Prisons to be imprisoned for a term of:

It is ordered that the defendant shall pay to the United States a special assessment of $100, which is due immediately. Any unpaid balance shall be due during the period of imprisonment, at the rate of not less than $25 per quarter, and pursuant to the Bureau of Prisons' Inmate Financial Responsibility Program.

It is ordered that the defendant shall pay restitution pursuant to 18 USC §3663A. Pursuant to 18 USC §3664(d)(5), a final determination of the victim's losses will be ordered at a deferred restitution hearing after such information becomes available. An amended judgment will be entered after such determination.

The defendant shall be held jointly and severally liable with co-participant Okechukwu Onyekwena (Docket No. 2:17CR00048-1) to the extent that said co-participant is convicted and determined liable for the same victim losses for which restitution is ordered in this judgment. The victims' recovery is limited to the amount of the victims' losses and the defendant's liability for restitution ceases if and when the victims receive full restitution.

The defendant shall comply with General Order No. 01-05.

Pursuant to Guideline §5E1.2(a), all fines are waived as the Court finds that the defendant has established that he is unable to pay and is not likely to become able to pay any fine.

Pursuant to the Sentencing Reform Act of 1984, it is the judgment of the Court that the defendant, Elvis Henry Idada, is hereby committed on the Single-Count First Superseding Indictment to the custody of the Bureau of Prisons for a term of 51 months.

Upon release from imprisonment, the defendant shall be placed on supervised release for a term of 3 years under the following terms and conditions:

1. The defendant shall comply with the rules and regulations of the United States Probation Office, General Order 05-02, with the exception of Standard Conditions 5, 6, and 14 of that order; and General Order 01-05, including the three special conditions delineated in General Order 01-05.
2. As directed by the Probation Officer, the defendant shall notify specific persons and organizations of specific risks and shall permit the Probation Officer to confirm the defendant's compliance with such requirement and to make such notifications.

3. During the period of community supervision, the defendant shall pay the special assessment and restitution in accordance with this judgment's orders pertaining to such payment.
4. The defendant shall apply all monies received from income tax refunds to the outstanding Court-ordered financial obligation. In addition, the defendant shall apply all monies received from lottery winnings, inheritance, judgments and any anticipated or unexpected financial gains to the outstanding Court-ordered financial obligation.
5. The defendant shall not use any other person's name or other personal identifying information for any purpose without the other person's permission.
6. The defendant shall submit defendant's person and any property, residence, vehicle, papers, computer, other electronic communication or data storage devices or media, and effects to search and seizure at any time of the day or night by any law enforcement or probation officer, with or without a warrant, and with or without cause.
7. If stopped or questioned by a law enforcement officer for any reason, the defendant shall notify that officer that defendant is on federal supervised release and subject to search.
8. The defendant shall possess and use only those computers and computer-related devices, screen user names, passwords, email accounts, and internet service providers (ISPs) that have been disclosed to the Probation Officer upon commencement of supervision. Any changes or additions are to be disclosed to the Probation Officer prior to the first use. Computers and computer-related devices include personal computers, personal data assistants (PDAs), internet appliances, electronic games, cellular telephones, and digital storage media, as well as their peripheral equipment, that can access, or can be modified to access, the internet, electronic bulletin boards, and other computers.
9. All computers, computer-related devices, and their peripheral equipment, used by the defendant shall be subject to search and seizure. This shall not apply to items used at the employment's site, which are maintained and monitored by the employer.
10. The defendant shall cooperate in the collection of a DNA sample from the defendant.

The drug testing condition mandated by statute is suspended based on the Court's determination that the defendant poses a low risk of future substance abuse.

The Court recommends that the Bureau of Prisons conduct a mental health evaluation of the defendant and provide all necessary treatment.

The Court grants the government's motion to dismiss the underlying Indictment, as to this defendant only.

The defendant is advised of his right to appeal.

The Court recommends the defendant be designated to FCI Otisville in NY or Danbury in Connecticut to be close to family.

In addition to the special conditions of supervision imposed above, it is hereby ordered that the Standard Conditions of Probation and Supervised Release within this judgment be imposed. The Court may change the conditions of supervision, reduce or extend the period of supervision, and at any time during the supervision period or within the maximum period permitted by law, may issue a warrant and revoke supervision for a violation occurring during the supervision period.
